Summer Term

Welcome back to the summer term, we are looking forward to seeing some sunshine this term (Fingers Crossed!) and once the weather warms up the children can come to school in their summer uniform. We've many things planned for this term including school trips, Father's Day Celebrations, Sports Day and a Summer Concert, it will be very busy!

PE Days

This terms PE Days will be:

Caterpillars/Butterflies: Monday & Wednesday

Bumblebees: Monday & Thursday

Dragonflies: Monday & Thursday

Any amendments will be sent out as a notification on Class Dojo, if you cannot see the School Story on Class Dojo please let the office know and a link can be sent out.

Bike Week

The children in Caterpillars & Butterflies are invited to bring their bike/scooter into school every day during week commencing 24th June 2024.

School Meals

We have started the new school meals menu this week and so far it has been received well by the children, if you have any feedback on the new menu please email the school office.

School Money

It would be appreciated if parents/carers can keep their school money accounts up to date and cleared by the end of each term please, many thanks for your co-operation.

Please ensure all items of school uniform are clearly named, thank you.

FLSA

In order for the FLSA to be able to continue with their great fundraising work they are looking for new members to join their committee, in particular the roles of Chair & Treasurer need to be filled - all parents, carers, grandparents are welcome to join and support will be given to new appointees. Please register your interest with the school office, thank you for your continued support.

Last Term Catch Up: Easter Lunch

Thank-you to all the grandparents who visited school for lunch. It was a pleasure to have you in school. We hope you enjoyed it!

Huge thanks to Miss Cheryl and Miss Kirsty for all their efforts to provide a delicious lunch!

Easter Service

It was a pleasure to visit All Saints Church and perform our Easter Service. The children performed very well and sang their hearts out! Many thanks to all the families that joined us for this Service.
